All Negotiations In Coal Strike Are Suspended

Hope Fades For Immediate Break In Coal Strike Deadlock

LEWIS' LATEST PLAN REBUFFED

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(INS)—John L. Lewis today asked Governor Schriker of Indiana to continue his efforts to arrange separate coal strike peace talks with the state's mine owners.

Lewis said such a meeting would be "most constructive."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Hope faded today for a break in the coal strike with all negotiations suspended and John L. Lewis rebuffed in his efforts to open a new bargaining front.

Developments of the past 24 hours may prompt Federal Mediation Director Cyrus S. Ching to speed up issuance of invitations to Lewis and the operators to come to Washington for government mediation talks.

Latest Developments

The events were:
1. Lewis offered, through a message to Indiana Gov. Henry F. Schriker, to conduct separate contract discussions with Hoosier producers, independent of the rest of the industry.

2. Indiana coal men promptly rejected United Mine Workers' president's proposal, asserting that the issues involved are of "national character and cannot be reconciled in district negotiations."

3. The Southern Coal Producers Association broke off bargaining sessions with the union at Bluefield, W. Va., after waiting fruitfully for two days for the appearance of UMW Secretary-Treasurer John Owens, who has been meeting the union negotiators.

Would Be Deceitful

Joseph E. Moody, president of the SCPA, said further Bluefield meetings merely would be deceiving the public.

The action of the Southern producers means that, unless Lewis is conducting private behind-the-scenes conversations with individual operators, there are now no negotiations in progress to seek a new coal wage agreement that would end the seven-week walk-out of 375,000 soft coal diggers.

President Harry S. Truman and his party, en route from Washington to St. Paul, Minn., for a political address today, passed through the outskirts of New Castle late last night on the mainline of the B. and O. Railroad. His train made a brief stopover at New Castle Junction, halting for three minutes to take on water, and get the usual checkup, but the President made no appearance, it is stated.

Hints of snow flurries are contained in the weather forecasts for this locality in the prediction for the immediate future.

PA News notes that electric street lights now line part of the New Castle-Ellwood City highway in the vicinity of the intersection of the Weigeltown road.

Permanent signs denoting "school bus stop" are making their appearance on most of the highways of the county. They have been erected as a result of the new state law requiring all autos to stop when a school bus is stopped on the road.

Despite county-wide killing frosts which have been observed in the district, many outdoor flowers are still blooming profusely in several sections of the city. Roses are (Continued on Page Two)

Navy Sea Command Changes Are Planned

By DARRELL GARWOOD
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Admiral Forrest P. Sherman today faces the task of pumping new blood into the navy's sea commands.

Sherman, new chief of naval operations, accepted Vice Admiral John Dale Price as deputy chief of naval operations. Price held the same post under Adm. Louis E. Denfeld, who Sherman replaced.

The new navy chief said that Price would remain "at least for several months" because "the shakeup in Washington is complete." But, he added:

"Changes Are Overdue"

"Some changes in the sea commands are overdue." The navy named Rear Adm. John Jennings Ballentine, of Hillsboro, Ohio, to succeed Sherman as commander of the Mediterranean fleet with the rank of vice admiral. Ballentine will leave Monday for the Mediterranean to board his flagship, the cruiser Des Moines.

Top overseas fleet commanders are Admirals Arthur W. Radford, Pacific fleet; W. H. P. Blandy, Atlantic fleet; Richard L. Connolly, Eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean, and Vice Adm. Gerald A. Bogan, Pacific First Task fleet.

Bogan was instrumental in shaking up the navy when his letter criticizing the defense department (Continued on Page Two)

Rushing Relief To Philippine Typhoon Areas

MANILA, Nov. 3.—(INS)—Relief crews and supplies were flown aboard 12 Philippine air force planes today to the island Republic's south-central areas hit by a typhoon that killed at least 57 persons and left many thousands homeless.

The Red Cross reported the bodies of 26 persons had been recovered thus far from the storm debris on land while 31 others were listed as drowned. Scores were injured.

The kind of havoc wrought by the typhoon was exemplified tonight in a Red Cross message estimating that 200 homes had been swept into the sea from three coastal villages on Negros island. Unofficial estimates of property damage on Cebu and Negros islands, the areas hardest hit by yesterday's fierce winds and torrential rains, ran from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000.

Fire Drives 400 Hotel Guests Out

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—(INS)—Two allegedly incendiary fires, started almost simultaneously, drove 400 scantily clad guests early today from the Brunswick hotel in the Back Bay area.

Fire officials said the flames, which sent clouds of smoke billowing through the seven-story structure, broke out in a trash can on second floor service landing and in a sofa on the fourth floor.

Deputy Fire Chief William Quigley called in the arson squad. He said that only rapid and effective action of the hotel's sprinkler system prevented the flames from spreading throughout the building and cutting off the escape of guests.

HOUSTON, Tex., Nov. 3.—(INS)—Eleven hundred bus drivers struck the Houston Transit Co. early today, forcing about 175,000 residents to find other transportation.

BERLIN, Nov. 3.—Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, United States military commandant of Berlin, charged today that the Russians have imposed "a second blockade of Berlin."

The hard-bitten former West Point chief, who succeeded Brig. Gen. Frank L. Howley as top American military man in divided Berlin, told International News Service in an exclusive interview that the Soviets are maintaining "unrelenting pressure" on Berlin.

"There is a second blockade of Berlin today. I wish we could make the people back home aware that we are still blockaded although bridges and highways have been opened."

"Physical barriers with planes overhead may be more dramatic, but this is just as serious." General Taylor explained that (Continued on Page Two)

Margaret Truman Sings In Columbus

Attends Reception At Executive Mansion Of Ohio Following Concert Program

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 3.—(INS)—Miss Margaret Truman was to leave for New York today with the cheers of Columbus music lovers still ringing in her ears.

Despite her plans to leave the Ohio capital after her concert last night, she changed her mind to accept the invitation of Governor and Mrs. Frank J. Lausche to attend a reception in the executive mansion.

Miss Truman stood in a receiving line with the Governor and Mrs. Lausche to greet some 200 guests after the concert. Also in the receiving line were Dr. and Mrs. Earl Baxter and Professor and Mrs. Allen McManigal.

An enthusiastic audience, dressed to the hilt, greeted Miss Truman last night as she made her Columbus concert debut. Miss Truman sang several German and Italian songs as well as some in English. For encores, she sang "Comin' Through the Rye" and "Smilin' Through."

Battles Looming Over Election Of Executive Board Members At Convention

ANTI-COMMUNIST ACTION IS ENDED

By ROBERT VINCENT
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

CLEVELAND, Nov. 3.—The CIO's 11th annual convention, its anti-Communist campaign virtually completed, transacted routine business today in Cleveland in the lull before an election storm and an impending wide-open jurisdiction battle.

Elections are slated tomorrow and delegates considered its virtually certain that President Murray and other top officials would be re-elected.

Battle-Royal Shaping

But delegates were equally certain that a battle-royal was shaping up over seats held by 12 members of the old 51-man executive board.

The board is comprised of national officers and one representative from each of the 40 affiliated unions. Two of those—United Electrical Workers and the Farm Equipment Workers—were booted out of the CIO yesterday. Ten others reportedly face (Continued on Page Two)

Plane Disaster May Result In New Regulation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(INS)—Military planes may be "kicked off" commercial airfields as the result of the Eastern Airlines P-38 crash which took 55 lives at Washington airport Tuesday.

Rep. Lane (D) Mass., angrily termed the accident "mass murder," and demanded that military craft be barred "forever" from commercial airfields. This would call for a major change in CAA regulations.

Civil Aeronautics Administrator Delos Rentsch, meanwhile, absolved Eastern Airlines of all responsibility for Tuesday's air crash—the worst airplane smashup in American history.

This placed total blame for the debacle on Eric Rio Bredoux, sole survivor and pilot of the P-38. Bredoux, suffering from a broken back, two broken ribs and severe lacerations, is barely clinging to life at the nearby Alexandria hospital.

Hospital attaches reported Bredoux had a relapse yesterday and is now under an oxygen tent.

If he dies, the mystery as to how the crash occurred may never be cleared up.

Court Ruling Says 11 Reds Can Be Bailed

Convicted Communists Can Provide Bail Pending Appeal Is Opinion

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—(INS)—The U. S. Court of Appeals ruled today that the 11 Communist leaders convicted of conspiracy to overthrow the U. S. government by force may be released on bail pending appeal of their case to higher courts.

The ruling was over strenuous government objection. Bail for seven of the Communists was set at $20,000 each and at $30,000 for the other four, for a total of $260,000. The government in protesting release of the men had said that in any case bail should not be less than $1,000,000.

Boost Chest Fund To $92,138 Mark

New Castle Community Chest made its largest single advance today with totaled report of $92,138.00 of a goal of $127,350.

More than 80 division heads, team captains, and workers were on hand for the special meeting in The Castleton ballroom at noon today.

Lunch was served through the courtesy of a local business establishment.

The amount reported to date represents 73 per cent of the quota and served as a stimulus for the many workers who are now determined to carry on with the campaign so that the thirteen agencies of the community will have necessary operating funds for the coming year.

Another report meeting will be held next Thursday noon at the Castleton.

Rev. Ralph E. Hovencamp, co-chairman, presided at today's meeting. Rev. Arthur D. Wenger, associate pastor of the First Christian church, asked the invocation.

Republicans In Big Rally Here

Large Crowd Hears Candidates At Meeting In Arena Wednesday Night

JUDGE HIRT IS UNABLE TO COME

Republicans held their final rally of the present campaign in New Castle Wednesday night in the Arena on Grove street.

The crowd was the largest to attend a rally in the Arena, between 750 and 800 being present. Judge William E. Hirt of the Pennsylvania Superior Court was to have been present but a mixup in his schedule resulted in his having to wire his regrets.

Candidates Speak
Candidates for city and county office were on the platform and each one was asked to speak briefly upon the office he was seeking. Captain Roger W. Rowland, chairman of the party, spoke at some length and predicted a victory for the entire ticket on November 8.

Said Chairman Rowland: "Just now we have a business at hand, the business of winning an election. This particular campaign has had a little more excitement than in some others, due to attacks by one candidate of the Democratic party, Attorney Sherman K. Levine.

"I have been asked why no detailed answer has been made to the attacks. I have believed and I believe now that we have a ticket made up of able, honest candidates. We have tried to conduct the campaign upon a high level of decency and sportsmanship. Because Mr. Levine would not come up to our level is no reason why we should descend to him. In other words I have refused to get down into the gutter with him."

Special music was provided by the United Effort quartet and the group added a melodious touch to the rally that was pleasant. Cake, ice cream and coffee were served at the conclusion of the rally.

Conferences Are Being Continued Over Settlement

Murray Devoting Attention To Three Concerns Reports Indicate

U. S. STEEL NOT YET INCLUDED

CLEVELAND, Nov. 3.—(INS)—Settlement of the 34-day-old nationwide steel tie-up appeared to hinge today on agreement with the industry's lesser producers.

CIO and United Steel Workers President Philip Murray, presiding at the 11th annual CIO convention in Cleveland, centered his drive for company-financed pensions, similar to those agreed to by Bethlehem Steel, on three firms employing about 120,000.

The United States Steel Corp., bellwether of the industry, has remained silent, meanwhile, and the USW is making no special effort to resume negotiations with "big steel."

With nearly 90,000 Bethlehem employees already starting back to work, a settlement with Republic Steel, Jones & Laughlin and the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., would mean that nearly half of the 500,000 steelworkers would be back on their jobs.

Terms Indicated
Murray, who appeared on the "Press Club Presents" radio program in Cleveland last night, indicated that peace in the strike will come only on terms outlined in the Bethlehem Steel agreement.

The steelworkers' head, by inference, rejected the possibility of any settlement with other corporations for less than the $100 monthly pensions provided for in the Bethlehem contract.

"Acceptance of the Bethlehem plan will prove to be particularly beneficial to all the companies," Murray stated.

North Beaver F.F.A. Youth Wins In Lightweight Shorthorn Division

Ted McCreary, North Beaver Township F.F.A. member brought high honors to Lawrence county, when his entry at the Pittsburgh Junior Livestock Show, which closes with the annual sale of the exhibits, took first place with his lightweight Shorthorn entry.

John Neely, of Plaingrove, representing the Plaingrove 4-H club took eighth place in the heavy-weight Angus division. Janet Maxwell, of Plaingrove 4-H Club won fourth place with a pen of Shropshire lambs, and Ed Maxwell, representing the Slippery Rock F.F.A., won fifth place in the same class.

Others from the county who had exhibits, were: Bill Cover, Richard Gwin, and Albert Hoffmaster, North Beaver F.F.A.; Hugh Forbes, Scott Township 4-H; George Maxwell, Donna Neely and Phil Cory, Plaingrove 4-H; and Nancy and John Marshall, Perry 4-H.

All of the victims were Negroes. Provident hospital officials said between 20 and 25 persons were treated there. Eight of those were hospitalized.

Among the injured was a 3-week-old baby thrown from a second-story window to a mattress on the ground. Others were reported to have leaped from the upper windows of the 3-story structure to escape the flames. Firemen said they carried 50 persons down ladders.

The building manager, Lafayette Blanton, 50, estimated the structure housed 300 occupants. Blanton was taken to a police station for questioning.

Armistice Day Dinner Hearing

Program Of Evening Will Be Different, Chairman Schweinsberg Reports

Plans for the annual Armistice Day dinner, which will take place in the Legion Home Thursday evening, November 10, are progressing and the event promises to be somewhat different than those in past years. General Chairman E. Gene Schweinsberg states.

There will be an old-fashioned home-cooked turkey dinner with all the trimmings, and a program of entertainment, which will be somewhat in the nature of a surprise.

Tuesday, November 8, is the last day for reservations, which can be made with any veterans organization. Ticket Chairman A. Lewis Conn, or Secretary Jimmy Fletcher, Schweinsberg stated today.

Game protector Thomas W. Meehan, Jr., who filed the charges, said the Pennsylvania Game commission has charges pending against a number of other violators, while another West Virginia man was fined $20 for hunting geese from a motor boat.

The game protector said road blocks between the Pennsylvania-West Virginia borders netted a number of hunters who exceeded game limits, as well as not having non-resident hunting licenses.

New Union Chartered

Yesterday the executive board chartered a new right-wing union known as the International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers. James B. Carey, CIO secretary-treasurer, was named head of the board which will organize the new group in Philadelphia Nov. 28.

Carey, refusing to say whether he would be a candidate for president of the new UE, said the organization will carry with it "at least" half of the expelled group's estimated 400,000 members.

His comment presaged what may develop into the most bitter jurisdictional fight since the original split between the AFL and CIO in the late 1930's.

Chief Albert Fitzgerald of the ousted UE is expected by many to set up a new national labor group. He claimed that UE members would stick with him and that "we will continue to function as a trade union."

Carey, who claimed that "practically all" of the General Motors and the "vast majority" of the General Electric and Westinghouse locals would switch to the new UE, said he expected employers to bargain with his faction in good faith. But he added:

"If it's necessary to have them, we will seek consent elections."

As he reached to pick the goose up the bird suddenly came to life and teed off with claws and beak. For a few moments there was a lot of excitement which ended by the goose getting away and Mr. Cummings getting out as a candidate for a Purple Heart.

two union negotiators and company heads to "explore" the plan were in the making.

Republic officials, who met with unionists yesterday but apparently did not accomplish much, probably will resume meetings today.

Republic, with its main offices in Cleveland, employs close to 60,000 in plants throughout the country.

More Conferences

At the Youngstown firm, which employs 25,000, a pension plan was to be presented by executives to the board of directors before meeting in formal negotiations with union heads.

In Pittsburgh, J. & L. officials were reported in a round of conferences on the topic of pensions. Admiral Ben Moreell, president of the company, talked with Murray Tuesday in Cleveland, but little progress was made.

It is believed, however, that unionists are considering combining their proposed plan with a plan already in effect at the Pittsburgh concern.

Possible Settlement

A possible early settlement at the Colorado Fuel & Iron company, where 15,000 steelworkers are out, was reported from New York last night.

A union spokesman in East Chicago, Ind., where negotiations are in progress covering Inland Steel's 17,000 employees, revealed that the company has offered $100 monthly pensions similar to those in the Bethlehem formula. He added, however, that the firm had insisted that detailed terms be worked out after an immediate resumption of work.

Murray said he had not heard of the Inland plan.

Meanwhile, a threat of a new strike appeared in Canton, O., where negotiations have broken off between officials of the USW and the Tinkin Roller Bearing company. A strike is set for mid-night tomorrow.

Report Settlement In Butler Suit

BUTLER, Pa., Nov. 3.—(INS)—Dr. Paul A. Hinchberger, 38, a Butler physician, and postal clerk Clair W. Hutzler announced an out of court settlement yesterday of a $50,000 damage suit charging that Dr. Hinchberger fathered Mrs. Hutzler's child and then billed the postal clerk for delivery.

Last May Mrs. Hutzler, 28, and Hinchberger ran away to St. Louis, but returned later when the doctor was refused the right to practice medicine in Missouri.

Hutzler had charged Hinchberger with depriving him of the affections, comfort, society and assistance of his wife, and injury to his social position.

Settlement of an undisclosed amount was made with the provision that Dr. Hinchberger maintain the child.

Golden Anniversary Observed

By Rev. and Mrs. H. Johnson

Guests numbering to 350 attended the informal reception on Wednesday evening at the Edensburg Methodist church, which honored the golden wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. Harry Johnson of Edensburg.

Rev. Johnson has been the guide and pastor of both the Edensburg and Hillsville Methodist churches for the past three years. During this time both he and Mrs. Johnson have acquired a large circle of friends.

Standing in the receiving line from 7 to 10 p.m. Rev. and Mrs. Johnson greeted all of the guests present with many traveling from far and near to extend to them the heartiest congratulations of the day.

Presentation of gifts was made at this time, and Joseph Leeper, presented to the honored couple a gift from the Edensburg and Hillsville Methodist church.

Rev. J. L. Petrie of the Mahoning Methodist church, and Rev. James A. Gaiser of the First Methodist church presented them with a gift from the Sub-district Methodist Ministers' association. Rev. and Mrs. Johnson responded graciously, expressing their sincere thanks to those present.

Pouring at the table were: Mrs. Zola Dick, Josephine Hartzell, the latter of Edwood City, Mrs. G. Edward Shaffer and Mrs. Lester Buchanan, the latter of Forresterville.

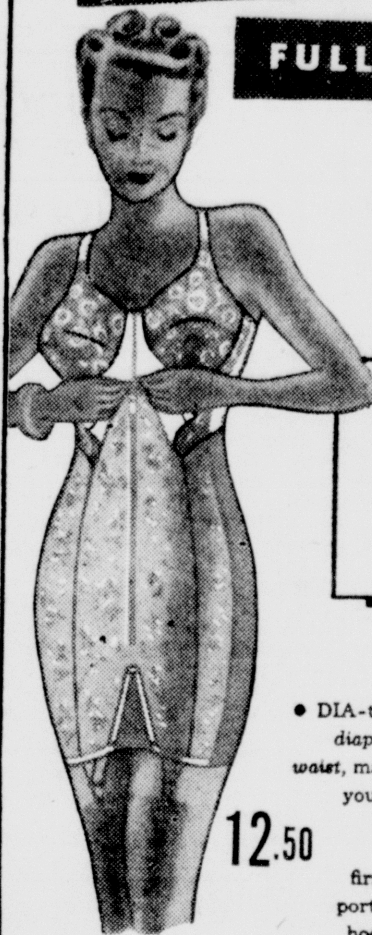

Rev. and Mrs. Johnson were united in marriage on November 2, 1899 in Butler, Pa. Rev. James McKee of the U. P. church officiated. The attendant at the wedding was Miss Mary A. Shields of Forresterville, sister of Mrs. Johnson, who last evening, also greeted the guests in the receiving line with the honored couple.

They are the parents of four children: Mrs. Muriel Johnson Sloan, of Grove City; Mrs. Clarence E. Kennedy, this city; Mrs. Virgil Kelly, of Forresterville, and Shields Hartman Johnson of Grove City.

The children together with seven grandchildren, and members of the Bible class of the church made arrangements for the observance.

RECOGNITION FOR RED CHINA

Notwithstanding the United States, it appears likely that both France and Britain shortly will grant de facto recognition to the Communist regime in China.

Observers point out that England in the past has always accorded diplomatic recognition to governments coming into power—regardless of the manner employed in gaining that power.

It is believed that even though Britain may not approve of the Chinese Communist regime, it will nevertheless grant recognition for commercial reasons. Britain always has played a large role in China's waterborne commerce.

France is expected to follow whatever policy is decided upon by Britain and other nations may come along later with similar action.

Despite the United States opposition to the Chinese Reds, this country may be forced to recognize them if most of the other major world powers decided upon such a step.

MIGHT BE AN IDEA

For several weeks the people of France were without a central authority. The premier couldn't get a vote of confidence from parliament. He and his executive department heads had no alternative under the French constitution but to quit, regardless of how highly they prized their sinecures.

In such circumstances it is the duty of the president to find a premier who can appoint a cabinet in which parliament has confidence. This, in the present French situation did not prove to be easy.

In the meantime affairs in France went on as before. Police were on the job to enforce the laws and preserve order. Regular government functions were administered as always. The main point is that the executive department took a vacation and wasn't missed.

There may be an idea in this for Washington. Congress has gone home for three months. Would anything happen if the heads of the executive department were to decamp for a similar period? The regular business of the government is transacted by rules of red tape and no super-bureaucrat is needed to hang over the shoulders of the privates who do most of the work.

The myth that the heads of government must be on the job day and night in readiness for some critical eventuality is merely a Hollywood conception.

If it were possible to get them out of Washington for three or four months, they wouldn't be concocting ideas for the spending of additional billions and taxpayers might get a breathing spell.

PROBLEMS OF OLD AGE

The need of old people for a sense of stability in a frighteningly changing world was pointed out by a Chicago social worker, speaking recently before the Institute on the Problems of Old Age in that city.

This sense of stability is likely to be preserved by maintaining the indigent elderly in their own homes, instead of supporting them in institutions, according to this speaker. Housekeeping services may be supplied by welfare agencies, as well as medical and nursing care during illness. The gain in terms of happiness and comfort for these old people is great and the expense is often no more than with institutional care.

Equal in importance with the sense of stability resulting from this system is the increased self-respect which follows individual treatment. The institutional patient in many cases feels that he has lost his identity, and with it his reason for living. Home care of the aged is appropriate in a country which emphasizes the importance of the individual.

RETURN OF BYRNES

States rights southern Democrats are overjoyed that former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes has decided to re-enter politics and, perhaps, campaign for governor of South Carolina.

The states righters, kicked and cuffed by the Democratic national committee at President Truman's direction, believe Byrnes may be in a position to swing all of the south for a States Rights ticket in 1952.

In Byrnes, the states righters believe they have found new life and can be a threat to the administration.

They don't figure to win any presidential election, but they now feel that they can have the balance of power to decide one. Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina carried only four southern states in the 1948 presidential election. The states righters think Byrnes could carry them all.

You can always get the best of any argument by not taking part in it.

In New York 2,783,308 persons are qualified to vote. This includes the stay-at-homes.

Elections are coming up over the country so it's about time for a lot of people to forget to vote.

One of the best ways to escape a few of the things that are expected of you is to have a career.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

A major curtailment in the traditional powers of the British House of Lords is in the making. And by ironic circumstances the operation is taking place in the peers' own chamber.

The limitation of upper house prerogative is contained in the labor government's so-called Parliament Bill.

On the overall picture, the legislation is designed to reduce from two years to one the length of time that the House of Lords can delay the functioning of bills passed by the House of Commons.

To Aid Attlee
More specifically, it will permit Prime Minister Clement Attlee's cabinet to push through iron and steel nationalization before the 1950 general elections and possibly to achieve socialization in other fields.

In addition to iron and steel, the Laborites wish to nationalize the privately owned and immensely profitable British cement industry. These plans are targets of terrific attack. Portland Cement always has been one of the most efficiently operated industries in the British Isles and because of their intentions in this field, the Laborites have been challenged by the Conservative opposition as a "wrecking crew."

They remain determined to go ahead, however, and in a little more than a week the Lords will find themselves stripped of their delaying weapon. They always have been jealous of their power to resist changes "until the will of the people has been declared."

Irony Of Situation
The irony of the present situation lies in the fact that the House of Commons, with its magnificent wood paneling and green leather benches, was bombed out in a German air raid during the war.

There was some brief discussion about meeting in some hall or theatre, just as Adolf Hitler's Reichstag went to the Kroll Opera house after Berlin's parliament was destroyed by fire.

But the House of Lords, feeling that this would be beneath the dignity of the "mother of parliaments," magnanimously offered the use of their own chambers to Commons.

The members accepted without a split second of hesitation and promptly filed into the even more luxurious upper house, where the benches are of crimson and a state throne stands in majestic array behind the speaker's woolsack.

When the 1945 elections turned Winston Churchill's national coalition parliament out into the cold, the Laborites swarmed in and immediately started nibbling away at capital and vested wealth, taking a wide swing to the left in place of what the Conservatives now call "the right road for Britain."

Bitter Feeling
Most members of the House of Lords feel bitter indeed about steps that have been or are being taken to eliminate private ownership of industry and other socialist measures.

They are opposed, of course, by the Laborites. For Britain preserves the seeming paradox of Socialist peers who in every respect except their voting maintain the dignified and sombre rituals of the advisory upper chamber.

In all the age-old history of Great Britain, rule by the House of Commons is a comparative innovation.

For centuries, the kings of England surrounded themselves with an advisory council consisting of bishops, abbots, earls and greater barons who imposed taxes, made wars and wrote peace treaties.

The Magna Carta was the beginning of the major change, and as the decades passed more and more power came into the hands of Commons.

Whenever its own rights were endangered, however, the upper house took advantage of its traditional privilege to petition the king for their "rightful place and voice" and their "ancient and undoubted rights and privileges"—all carefully written into the law of the land.

The last major occasion on which the Lords asserted themselves to a noticeable degree was during the British general strike of 1926.

This was the first modern invocation by labor of "direct action" methods and the House of Lords the way to proving that such methods were virtual treason, punishable by extreme methods, and the strike collapsed.

A year later Parliament made participation in a general strike a crime against the nation. The House of Lords—so often ridiculed—was applauded and honored for its courage throughout the British empire and the world.

PLAY SPOT
Now if it's fun you're seeking, I'll tell you where to play.
The yard is wide and open and throw a ball you may.
Just whistle for your comrades and make them welcome here.
For when I hear you shouting I'll know that you are near.

If you should break a window, I'll buy another pane.
I'd rather you'd be careful, but still I'll not complain.
And, if your friends get hungry the cookies I'll supply.
To me it's peace and comfort to know that you are nearby.

Should you be fond of music—a trumpet want to blow
Then somewhere have to toot it I would not have you go.
So practice in the parlor with members of your band.
It may be noisy music, but I shall think it grand.

I want you to remember your home is meant for play.
'Tis kept for love and laughter. So sweep the grass away.
And scuff the rugs and carpets and never have a fear.
'Tis not for noise I'll scold you if you are happy here.

Future Of Germany Uncertain

BONN, Germany, Nov. 3. — Gratitude, says Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, is a short-lived virtue.

He sits in his sparsely furnished office in what was once Bonn's museum and talks in dry, understated fashion about the future of Germany and the government he heads.

American help has been very large, Dr. Adenauer says. Germans know it has kept the western world from going Communist. But if it is not continued then the danger will be very great again. That, in effect, sums up the German situation today as West and East bid for strength in this strategic center. Some people, the chancellor says pointedly, do not seem to realize that this is not 1939 but 1949 and the age of the atomic weapon and the guided missile.

His inference is plain: The control of Germany means the control of all Western Europe and Great Britain.

Worse Government Likely
Chancellor Adenauer stressed in his talk with me what I'm sure he emphasizes with all his western visitors. That is, that a continuation of the dismantling of German industry will make it impossible for his government to survive. And he gives a clear intimation that the government that succeeds his will almost certainly be a worse one.

In return for the end of dismantling, Adenauer is willing to grant the French and British stock ownership in firms marked to be dismantled. This, he says, would mean joint ownership of vital German industry not only in the Ruhr but elsewhere.

If dismantling is not soon ended, according to the chancellor, then it will become a rallying cry for nationalist extremists just as Versailles was a rallying cry after 1920.

Chancellor Is Gloomy
Yet, Chancellor Adenauer is gloomy at present. He can see no chance of the French changing their position, which is adamant for the continuation of the dismantling program as already specified. The British, as the chancellor sees the situation, are even more inflexible in their stand.

I asked Dr. Adenauer about the move of Soviet Russia in creating through the new subversive East German government an East zone police force trained in the use of light artillery and tanks. This, he said, created a serious situation for Western Germany where there is no effective police force today, except for ineffectual and badly trained police in local communities.

It is necessary, the chancellor said, to have a force to balance that in the East. This happens to coincide with the thinking of some American military men. If trouble occurred in the Ruhr, according to Dr. Adenauer, there would be no way to check it.

Soviet Bloc Danger
The theme he invariably came back to was the danger of absorption of Western Germany into the Soviet bloc. There are forces in WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Own your own fish pond in virtually your own backyard. Grow your own fish "crop" at a lower cost than any other food. Enjoy the most popular of all sports for the young and old and add to the richness and variety of your diet at only a few cents a pound.

Sounds a little fantastic, but it is not. The government is sponsoring the idea and is rapidly making this country a nation of fishermen. In no other form of recruiting has the success been so great.

The idea was born during World War II. In studying ways in which to increase the food supply of the nation, the Department of Agriculture made a surprising discovery. It found that one of our greatest natural resources was being almost completely neglected.

There were tens of thousands of fresh water ponds, one or more on almost every farm and many only a few miles from urban centers, which with little effort could be made to produce an unfailing supply of fish at a lower cost than any other crop.

The raising of pond fish is an old and wide-spread type of farming in many parts of the world. In Europe and in the Orient the culture of pond fish has been an important pursuit for centuries.

Ever since the Middle Ages the farmers of France have raised fish for food and fertilizer as part of a regular crop rotation. In 1934 the ponds in Poland yielded an approximate 22 million pounds of fish. In the Philippines the yield was about 98 million pounds.

In the United States interest in pond fish culture had been local and sporadic. Early efforts were directed almost entirely toward raising carp. Possibly the general lack of interest that had existed in this country in the development of farm fish ponds was the result of the impression that carp is the only fish that can be easily raised.

As an experiment the Fish and Wildlife Service stocked ponds in different sections of the country with sunfish and bass. The results were disappointing.

Then commercial fertilizer was applied to the surface of the water and the results were dramatic. Ponds which had been producing less than 50 pounds of fish a year now began producing from 500 to 600 pounds of large pan-size fish per acre.

The fish do not consume the fertilizer. It sinks to the bottom and promotes growth of microscopic plants and animal life on which fish feed. Fish grow to pan size in one year and except in rare instances ponds never need restocking. In the second year the pond will have reached its limit in fish—measured in pounds.

All that is required then is plenty of fishing. For every 10 pounds of fish removed, another 10 pounds will grow. The faster the pond is fished, the faster the rate of generation.

It is the ambition of the Department of Agriculture to see at least 1,000,000 producing fresh water ponds on the farms of the nation. They will not only supply much needed recreation for the members of these hard working families, but will greatly add to our food supply.

The government will supply bulletins and maps showing how to select a pond or site for fish-growing, and how to build a dam. The Fish and Wildlife Service will stock the pond with fish best adapted to its own section of the country. Usually they stock 1,000 sunfish and 100 bass for each surface acre of water.

Thereafter the pond requires little attention, aside from yearly fertilization. All you need to do is fish to your heart's content—and the more you fish the better the results will be.

● BOW-TIE JUSTICE—Former Attorney General Tom C. Clark did not forego his addition to bow ties when he ascended to the Supreme Court.

When the court held its opening session, Clark was resplendent in his new black robes—and was wearing a conservative navy blue bow tie with discreet white stripes.

Clark looked into the matter of precedent before making his opening appearance. He found pictures of the court from the days of Chief Justice William Howard Taft in which three members are wearing bow ties.

● IRON CURTAIN—The recent devaluation of currencies by western European nations is hurting behind the Iron Curtain, notably in Czechoslovakia.

Czechoslovakia, which sends 60 per cent of its exports to western nations, suddenly found most of its trade contracts cancelled when Czech prices became too high in relation to devalued currencies.

Czech exile sources say the Prague government has three alternatives: 1—To follow suit and devalue the Czech crown. 2—Order a cut in export prices. 3—Decrease wages.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

A recently published cartoon by E. Simms Campbell gave me quite a chuckle and an idea.

It showed the usual prosperous-looking elderly gentleman in mustache and Tuxedo with the usual luscious but dumb-looking blondes. He was showing her his collection of mounted fish—which is somewhat a change from the usual routine of prosperous-looking elderly gentlemen showing luscious but dumb-looking blondes their etchings.

Most of the fish were small and medium size, the kind you and I catch when we go fishing.

But one display was huge—only there was no fish in the frame. It was empty.

Proudly the gentleman pointed to it and said: "And this is my prize specimen—the one that got away."

Most of us haven't any collections of mounted fish in our game rooms. Most of us haven't even any game rooms.

But almost every one of us has, at least in his mind, "the one that got away."

And to most of us, as to Simms Campbell's gentleman, "the one that got away" is also our prize specimen.

Let's observe this be not entirely clear, let me elaborate a bit on it.

You may have a perfectly good husband—or wife, as the case may be.

You have lived together for quite a while and you have become something of a routine to each other.

Familiarity, you know, does breed routine. So even now and then you go into the game room of your memory and think of "the one that got away."

He or she becomes more glamorous in your mind. You see him or her as he or she looked—years ago (please fill in the figure yourself), until that one who got away

Folks Of Fame

For 30 years Field Marshal Count Helmuth von Moltke was chief of staff of the Prussian army, the greatest strategist of the latter half of the 19th century. He was born Oct. 26, 1800, at Parchim, Mecklenburg, Germany. In the Austrian campaign of 1866, he demonstrated the superiority of the breech-loader rifle with which the Prussian troops were armed, over the muzzle-loader. The Prussians under him defeated the Austrians. Then came the Franco-German war in 1870, in which his strategy brought defeat to the French Jan. 18, 1871. He died suddenly on April 24, 1891.

A DOG'S LIFE

Some dogs seem to have a pretty good time. Other dogs lead a precarious existence, whatever that is. Dogs are subject to many diseases of humans and some of their own.

They seem to carry some diseases from person to person too. The dog may be man's best friend. If not carefully supervised he is likely to be rather insanitary at times.

The licensing of dogs seems to be a good thing. The owners are held responsible for the conduct and condition of their pets.

If a boy has a dog, the health of both should be looked after so that the boy may be kept in good condition.

Building Project On Okinawa Base

To Increase Operational Facilities
On Hard-Won Island With
$24,000,000 Program

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

U. S. 20TH AIR FORCE HEAD-QUARTERS, Okinawa, Nov. 3.—(INS)—America's principal western Pacific jet fighter base on the hard-won island of Okinawa is suffering from an acute lack of operational facilities but a $24,000,000 building project is afoot to remedy the situation.

This approval of the present condition and future prospects of the key base was given to a party of touring newsmen on Okinawa by Maj. Gen. A. C. Kincaid, commander of the U. S. 20th Air Force.

Pushing Program
If the United States were currently at war, the general observed yesterday, the Okinawa jet fighter center could be regarded as operating on a shoestring. However, Kincaid hastened to add, everybody from President Truman down is "pushing" a program to provide facilities essential to full operation.

The general showed the correspondents a jet fighter base where installations such as repair shops are built of wooden crates in which unassembled planes had been shipped to Okinawa.

The 20th Air Force chief said $24,000,000 has been appropriated for Air Force construction on the big island. This project, he explained, is still in the planning phase but Mr. Truman, Defense Secretary Johnson, the joint chiefs of staff and "everybody else in Washington" are trying to expedite the program.

When the projected construction is finished, Kincaid declared, the Okinawa base will have enough facilities "to place us in a thoroughly operational condition although it still leaves some 'further' building necessary."

The general took the newsmen on an inspection of installations at the Kadena and Naha airstrips where he pointed out that neither personnel, planes nor machine shops were adequately housed. Okinawa's biggest need, Kincaid, is for construction of typhoon-proof homes, machine shops and storehouses.

High Altitude Gas May Give Weather Clues

California Scientist Discovers New Gas Molecules In High Atmosphere

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 3.—(INS)—Plans are being formulated for exploration of a high altitude layer of atmosphere where newly-discovered forms of oxygen and nitrogen molecules convert the sun's ultra-violet rays into heat.

The usual oxygen and nitrogen molecules were discovered by Dr. Joseph Kaplan, physicist at the University of California at Los Angeles, during laboratory experiments with rarefied gases in a specifically designed quartz bottle.

The scientist discovered that the particles were able to store radiated heat, while ordinary molecules lost such energy by colliding with one other.

Theory Verified

Dr. Kaplan theorized that in the upper atmosphere nature produced conditions similar to those which prevailed in his quartz bottle.

Spectroscopic observations at Lick Observatory indicate a verification of this view.

The physicist believes that a layer of the energy-storing oxygen and nitrogen starts at an altitude of about 60 miles.

Apparently the layer absorbs the sun's deadly ultra-violet light and converts it into heat which is passed on down to the earth.

Dr. Kaplan predicted that a further knowledge of the layer particularly how it fits in with sun-spot activity, may enable meteorologists to chart the weather for months in advance.

Chicken a la king was so called supposedly because it was first prepared for Edward VII of England, according to his own recipe.

'Chocolate For Christmas' Completes Y-Teens Project During Month October

There were 200 chocolate bars from New Castle Y-Teens left last week to complete the "Chocolate For Christmas" project these clubs conducted during October.

Two more clubs last week added their chocolate bars to the 200 sent earlier by Y-Teens of Shenango and Union high schools to be delivered to unfortunate children overseas as an extra delicacy at Christmas-time. Washington 8 and 9-grade club at its regular meeting presented four boxes Christmas wrapped and ready for mailing. At a "parade of nickels" Ne-Ca-Hi Y-Teens gave their money for four more boxes Wednesday night.

The goal of 100-percent donation from teen-agers in the New Castle YWCA has been achieved; they joined this nation-wide project enthusiastically as an expression of their fellowship with and concern for girls in other countries.

Nation's Biggest Quiz Show Ready To Get Under Way

Bureau Machinery Nearly Ready For Population Census In April

VITAL STATISTICS TO BE COMPILED

By WILLIAM KERWIN
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(INS)—America's biggest quiz show—a 70 million dollar extravaganza backed by the United States government—is just about ready for the road.

And, even though every person in every state of the union will participate as Uncle Sam assumes the role of number one quizmaster not a single prize will be awarded. The payoff will involve a stack of vital statistics on America as collected by the U. S. Census Bureau in its 17th decennial census of the population.

Bureau machinery has been grinding into position for next April when the census gets underway and everything is in readiness except, perhaps, for the recruitment of the census takers.

Forms Printed
Even the green and white forms to be used in collecting the information have been printed. Among a host of things, the bureau wants to verify that 150 million persons live in the U. S., in 45 million homes and 6,300,000 farms.

It wants to know who you are, what you do and some other personal questions which you may not like but which will be recorded confidentially and never disclosed—not even to other government agencies.

Two new questions have been added to the preponderous quiz taken every ten years by the government. "Do you own a television set?" And how much is your total income?

To Use 150,000
In order to carry out the job, the census bureau will use 150,000 persons to collect and digest the information.

This will involve 140,000 enumerators or door-bell ringers, directed by 8,300 crew leaders under the supervision of 450 district supervisors.

It will take about two weeks to complete the census in city areas and about a month in farm areas.
On December 1, 1950, the bureau must, under law, transmit official population figures for each of the 48 states to the President and the Congress.

The figures are used to check state representation in the House. Officials expect states on the West Coast to have their delegations increased while the southern states stand to lose a few seats.
The entire census, expected to cost 70 million dollars, must be completed by December 31, 1952. The total population in 1950 is expected to be 18 or 19 million above the 131,669,275 counted 10 years ago.

Entries Still Being Received For Parade Floats

Expect Float Division Will Be One Of Most Attractive In Armistice Pageant

Local industrial and civic organizations are reminded that there is still plenty of time in which to enter a float in the Armistice Day parade. This division, of which Edward A. DeCarbo is chairman,

Four trophies will be presented for the winning floats, two of which will go to the best industrial floats, and the other two to the floats entered by civic organizations. These handsome trophies may now be seen in the window of Reynolds and Summers.
Entries may be made by communicating with Chairman DeCarbo, 709 Arlington avenue.

Pennsylvania's Scenic Beauty Is Shown In Film At Luncheon Meeting

Kiwanis Club members were treated to a fine exhibit at their noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton, Wednesday, when a splendid color film entitled, "Pennsylvania, Pleasure Land," was shown, through the courtesy of Clay Aibel, of the Penn Power Company.

The picture showed some of Pennsylvania's finest resort spots, camping areas, and beautiful wooded parks; its game preserves, state forests, and other places which make the state one of the most attractive in the union.

Other parts of the film show its winter areas, where skiing and tobogganing are provided. Plans are being made by the club for special observance of National Kiddies Day, on November 19.

BUY CLOTHES THAT ARE RIGHT
A well-planned wardrobe is a good investment for any woman. Not only will she save herself money, but she always will have the feeling of being well dressed for any occasion.

Basic dresses or suits, often referred to as all purpose garments, generally are the best buys for most women. The accessories worn with this type dress or suit will give variety and interest. With the correct accessories, a suit for general wear becomes a dressy suit for special occasions.

The basic outfit must be selected carefully so as not to end up with something which lacks style, character and fitness for any occasion. Always rely on quality instead of quantity when planning your wardrobe. It is false economy to buy garments which are of such quality that they fail to give you the appearance of being well dressed.

Avoid extremes in fashion, especially if your clothes budget is limited. Select clothes which are flattering to you; seasonal styles may not be suited to your figure. Buy the clothes that are right for you and you will be ready for any occasion.

USE DEEP LITTER
Poultrymen find that built-up deep litter is a labor saver in the laying house. Penn State poultry specialists report: When properly managed, it will provide a soft, dry, deep floor covering all winter. Put a small amount of litter on the floor and when the chickens up, add another light layer and have worked in it and broken it repeat as needed.

Blue and gold was the color scheme that predominated at the nicely arranged table. Miniature umbrellas, as clever favors, revealed the news, "Ann and Pearce" November 12, 1949.

Yellow mums and carnations were used as the table centerpiece, and aiding the hostess at the table were her mother, Mrs. Mary Covelli, Mrs. Fred Covelli, Mrs. Michael Covelli and Mrs. Joe Carrigan.

Gifts were arranged under a large blue and gold umbrella, and afterwards the honoree opened them for display.

Man Is Killed, Wife Badly Hurt In Auto Crash

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., Nov. 3.—(INS)—Chester L. Walker, 57, of Muskegon, Okla., was dead today and his wife in critical condition as a result of an automobile crash on the Lincoln Highway at Tuscarora mountain, west of Chambersburg.

Walker was killed instantly when his wife lost control of their automobile, swerved into the right bank of the highway and then shot back over the road into a halted tractor-trailer truck.

The driver of the truck, James L. Felicette, 21, of Clairton, told state police he saw the car go out of control and halted his vehicle. The crash impact demolished the Walker car and tore off the truck's front wheels.

Mrs. Walker was taken to Chambersburg hospital suffering possible skull and rib fractures.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Mark Van Doren once played host to a party of convivial literary folk who were having a wide and handsome time until a monumental bore—uninvited, incidentally—lumbered in and depressed the entire assemblage. After the bore had departed, he was discussed at some length. "Wouldn't you think," suggested someone, "that it would break the heart of a person like that to see how the face of everybody he addressed simply froze into an expression of acute distaste and vacuity?"

"You forget," said Van Doren, "that a person like that never has known any other kind of expression!"

The late Arthur Bostwick tells a story at the expense of Harper's in his A Life With Men and Books. A popular medium announced solemnly that she was going to publish a novel that had been dictated to her by the spirit of Mark Twain. Harper's legal department hastily sought an injunction "on the ground that they were entitled to all his work, on which ever side of the grave it might be produced."

Joseph's Market Celebrating 32 Years Of Service

South Side Food Store Had Humble Beginning; Now One Of Finest In This Section

Joseph's, one of New Castle's oldest and widely known food centers is marking its thirty-second anniversary today and all this week.

From a humble beginning in 1917, the store has grown and expanded to such an extent that a staff of 50 trained employees is necessary to handle the volume of business which the store does. The store founders, Mr. and Mrs. Moowid Joseph still have an active part in overseeing of the business. Mrs. Joseph is office manager of the popular organization.

Thomas (Tony) Joseph is general manager and grocery buyer while Joseph F. Joseph is produce buyer. Joseph Garzewski is in charge of the large meat section of the store. Forty-five other employees are on hand to facilitate the buying tasks of the housewife.

With the opening of the sale on Wednesday evening, the store was crowded with food purchasers who arrived to take advantage of the many bargains offered during the sale. The key sales personnel bear identification markers in order that customers may become acquainted with the courteous staff who are there to serve the buyers. Joseph's parking facilities are ample and no problem exist in this connection. Employees either carry the merchandise to the waiting cars or the four truck delivery system brings the fresh merchandise to the homes of the thrifty purchasers in a short time.

Women of the United Presbyterian congregations of this city and the surrounding rural district gathered November 1, in the Third church.

Mrs. Jacob F. Rentz, of Epworth Methodist church, who was the table speaker at noon, told of the work of the Women's Society of Christian Service of her denomination. Mrs. Rentz cited the fact that conditions of many communities are bettered by activities of Christian people. She also stated that today's youth will be the church of tomorrow, and we should pray for the young people. The speaker stressed that Christian service is not only for women, but also for men and children, all being needed in the work.

The meeting opened in the morning with Mrs. Wendell Bell, of Bethel church, reading a poem during the devotional period. Mrs. Bell spoke on "Youth," asking that members of the group pray for today's young people. Mrs. Roy McBride, of Mahoning church, presented the news items, giving the history of Egypt. St. Mark was the first missionary. She also told of how natives, who have been taught by missionaries in various countries, teach others who have not been reached by the workers. The speaker closed by telling of the need for more teachers in the various mission schools. Mrs. R. R. McGeorge, of Highland congregation, offered prayer.

Miss Maxwell Talks To Pollock P.T.A.

Musical Selections Given; Miss Maxwell Of McGill Speaks On 'Report Cards'

Members of the Pollock Avenue P.T.A. gathered in the school library on Wednesday evening for their second meeting of the year. Orlando Lucidore, president, welcomed the group. He stated that the P.T.A. units of the city are planning a float for the Armistice Day parade. Angeline Esposito was then introduced by Mr. Lucidore. She sang two lovely selections, the "Ave Marie," and "Back to Sorrento," accompanied by Miss Ruth Weir. Little Jean Sjoren played several old favorites on her accordion.

Miss Maxwell Speaks
Miss Margaret Lowry, program chairman, then introduced the speaker of the evening, Miss Helen Maxwell, teacher at Arthur McGill school. Chairman of the city's report card committee, Miss Maxwell had as her subject, "Report Cards."

"The committee has tried to establish a set form to the report card. They are to measure each individual child in scholastic work, personality, and health. No child grows at the same rate as another child, and it is the teacher's responsibility to check growth in these three important phases in a child's life."

"A child may be slow learning, but he may be capable of adjusting himself socially to the group. The learning will come as the child develops. Teaching is not to measure the mental growth alone, but the whole child. A report card should carry home to the parents and the child the school's interpretation of the growth of the child."

"Any grade on the card will be fully explained to the parent upon request. A teacher should not wait nine weeks to notify a parent if the child is not progressing as he should or is capable of doing."

In conclusion, Miss Maxwell stated, "The P.T.A. meets to help one another, and it is the job of the teacher to help the parents better understand the work being done with the children in school each day."

A question and answer period followed Miss Maxwell's talk.

New Members

Mrs. John George, treasurer, stated that seventy-three members have now enrolled in the Pollock P.T.A. Mrs. Fornatora was successful in capturing the door prize. Winner of the fish bowl for her home room was Miss Clara Cortodone.

ton, who had the most parents represented.

Announcement was made by Miss Lowry that Miss Beulah Campbell, teacher of elementary education at Westminster, will be on hand to speak at the next meeting. Her topic will be "Reading."

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Edith Natale, Mrs. Adeline Medure, and Mrs. Rose Buonpane, members of the refreshment committee. The next meeting of the P.T.A. will be held in the school library on Wednesday, December 7.

LONDON, Nov. 3. — (INS) — Three royal physicians visited King George this morning for what was termed a routine general checkup.

The doctors included Sir John Weir, who has been attending the British ruler since he became ill with a leg ailment that necessitated an operation.

Customers' Corner

Question: Does your A&P give you good food at low prices?

Answer: Yes. That is why millions of American families do all their food shopping at A&P.

Question: Is A&P a monopoly?

Answer: No. We do only a small share of the nation's food business . . . a smaller share than we did 10 years ago.

Question: Does A&P drive competitors out of business?

Answer: No. We have more competitors today than we had 10 years ago and many of our good competitors have publicly advertised their willingness and ability to compete with us.

Why, then, do the anti-trust lawyers want to put your A&P out of business?

Marijuana Arrests Made In Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 3. — (INS)—Two women and four men today are scheduled to appear before Youngstown Commissioner William G. Dornan on charges of violating the federal narcotics laws.

Two of the six persons arrested by Howard Chappel, a federal narcotics agent admitted they had fled from Chicago where they dealt in the marijuana, when they were arrested and 74 cigarettes taken.

Chappel said he bought some of the narcotics from the six persons on Tuesday after a three month investigation, and signaled waiting policeman for the arrest.

Police said raiders found all doors and windows barred with rubber sheeting and a slot in the front door to identify visitors before they were admitted.

Two of the men arrested said they came to Youngstown from Chicago after "things got too hot."

Cups are sometimes called mugs since they were at one time made in the form of faces.

FACTS -vs- PROPAGANDA

A&P is spending huge sums in ads apparently designed to rouse consumer support in connection with a civil suit by the U. S. Department of Justice to force A&P to conform to the laws of the land. WHY?

IN THESE ADS, A&P TELLS ONLY A PART OF THE STORY. It makes many dire predictions,—among others, that the suit will put “your A&P . . . out of business”,—will mean higher food prices,—and will harm the farmer, labor, and the consumer. This is an absolute falsehood.

This statement is so far from the truth, it is ridiculous. Now that this octopus has found a law bigger than its own jungle law, it is starting to cry for help.

Here Are Important Facts:

In 1946 A&P was convicted and fined, in Federal Court, for CRIMINAL violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act—

Here in New Castle, Lawrence County, Pa., December 5, 1938, Judge Walter Braham granted an injunction against the A&P restraining them from AGAIN violating a law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The present suit has been brought by the Government TO RESTRAIN A&P FROM REPEATING THE OFFENSES FOR WHICH IT HAS BEEN CONVICTED—

THE GOVERNMENT SUIT DOES NOT SEEK TO CLOSE A SINGLE A&P STORE—

THE SUIT DOES NOT SEEK TO PUT A&P OUT OF BUSINESS,—MERELY out of the “LAW VIOLATION BUSINESS”, and the centralized ownership and control that help to make law violation possible—

And, of course, THERE ARE MANY OTHER GROCERS, BOTH CHAIN AND INDEPENDENTS, WHO AFFORD THE PUBLIC GOOD FOOD AT PRICES AS LOW, OR LOWER THAN, A&P.

YOUR DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE has made it crystal clear that its suit is not an effort to put A&P out of business,—not an attack on “big business as such” but merely an effort to force A&P to reorganize into separately-owned concerns,—AND THIS FOR REASONS QUITE DIFFERENT FROM THOSE SET FORTH BY A&P.

Your independent neighborhood grocer, who is not part of a gigantic corporation or group of corporations, is not able to match A&P dollar for dollar in publicizing the facts as to the nature of the “A&P case”. And your Department of Justice will try the case in the courts, whose job it should and will be to decide whether the charges are true and the requested court order is justified. But we as a public service want to give you the full information as to the nature of the Government's suit.

THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE OF THE U. S. A. SEEKS REMEDY, NOT RUIN, insofar as A&P and its operations are concerned.

YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD GROCER DOES NOT WANT THE GOVERNMENT TO PUT HIS COMPETITORS OUT OF BUSINESS. That is not the American way. He does want, and we believe you will agree he is entitled to, equality of opportunity within the law of the land. THIS IS THE AMERICAN WAY AND THIS HE HAS BEEN DENIED IN THE PAST THROUGH A&P PRACTICES WHICH UNITED STATES COURTS HAVE HELD TO BE IN VIOLATION OF THE LAW OF THE LAND.

We ask you, therefore, to withhold judgement while the traditional American system of fair play determines, through the courts, the issues involved in the “A&P case”.

Public Statement Issued by Assistant Attorney General Herbert A. Bergson

Assistant Attorney General Herbert A. Bergson who has charge of the Anti-Trust Division of the Department of Justice on October 4, 1949 issued the following public statement on A&P advertising crusade!

“Contrary to A&P's false and misleading advertising, successful prosecution of the civil proceedings against it will not increase but should decrease grocery prices. IT WILL NOT RESULT IN THE CLOSING OF A SINGLE STORE much less ‘destroy’ the A&P.

“The present civil suit is based upon the same conduct involved in an earlier criminal case in which A&P was found guilty and this year paid maximum fines totaling $175,000. A&P contended in that case, as it now does in its advertisements, that it is big because the American people have made it big. On the contrary, the court found that A&P's bigness was not due to efficiency and enterprise but to the ‘PREDATORY APPLICATION OF ITS MASS PURCHASING POWER’ and the abuse of that power through boycotts, blacklisting, preferential rebates, price wars, and below-cost retailing in selected areas.

“The Court also found that A&P prices were reduced in as many as 30 per cent of its 6,000 stores only long enough to drive out local competition. By deliberately selling at higher prices in the remaining 70 per cent of their stores which are located in no-competitive areas, A&P was able to accomplish this at the expense of its customers and at no cost to itself. A&P's customers in 70 per cent of its stores were compelled to subsidize price wars in those A&P stores being run at a deliberate loss”.

God Comforts His People

ISAIAH ASSURES THEM HE WILL STRENGTHEN AND HELP THEM

Scripture—Isaiah 40: 41; 42:5-9; 54: 61; 63:7-9; Luke 4:14-21

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

"Comfort ye, comfort ye, My People, saith your God." So Isaiah consoled the people whom at times he severely rebuked for their sins.

Keep your faith in God, who is willing and able to help in all emergencies, he told them. Dread and fear of what may be in store for the world in the coming years is rife today. Many, like the Jews of Isaiah's day, have suffered torture, death, bereavement, banishment from their home lands, all imaginable sorrows, but in the triumph of right, they may still—and many do—keep a serene mind and trust that eventually all will be well.

The world needs the comfort that Isaiah gave his own people in that far-off time, as opposing ideologies battle to control the universe, making the fear of wars to come—even more horrible than the one just ended—loom on the horizon.

"Behold, the Lord God will come with His strong hand. He shall feel His flock like a shepherd; He shall gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young."

The Lord who created all things—the vast dominion of the heavens, the earth, with its oceans, mountains, valleys, and all living things, also planted in man's heart a sense of right, a need to worship, and courage to fight for high ideals that could make the world peaceful and happy.

If these ideals of a brotherhood of man, of service to all, of sharing with others, and the faith in God that Isaiah preached so many centuries ago, can be planted deep in the hearts and minds of the children who will be the next generation—those ideals will in time be realized. "O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, I will lay thy stones with fair colors, and lay thy foundations with sapphires. And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children."

"Hast thou not heard? Hast thou not heard? The everlasting God, Jehovah, the creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary; there is no searching of His understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might He increaseth strength."

"Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall."

"But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint."

The eagle is a solitary bird. He is never seen in flocks, as other birds. He nests in inaccessible mountain crags, and soars far up in the sky—alone. We too should seek solitude now and then to commune with our Maker and gain renewed strength from Him. "To walk and not faint." The walking may be likened to our daily tasks—in schools, homes, offices, factories. If we trust in God's help in the doing of these duties, we shall "renew our strength," even if we feel weary and faint. We will not then fail in our responsibilities.

Luke tells us how Jesus came to his home town—Nazareth—and, as was his habit, on the Sabbath, he went to attend the service in the synagogue. As was the custom of the day, He, as a visitor, was handed the scriptures to read a portion thereof. Opening the book, He read: "The spirit of the Lord is upon Me; because the Lord hath anointed Me to preach good tidings unto the meek; He hath sent Me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captive, and the opening of the prisons to them that are bound; To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn." Jesus then sat down, and as all those present looked upon Him in wonder, He said, "This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears."

Bald eagles have been observed to make use of the same nest for 35 years in succession.

Amateur fishermen buy more than 250,000 fish hooks in the United States every day.

It takes about 18 geese of average size to furnish three pounds of feathers.

Interest at Fever Heat on Eve of New Castle-Aliquippa Grid Meeting

Winner Friday Will Receive Title Bid

Most of the heavy work is done. Tapering off and psychological preparation are all that remain for the high school football contest to be staged at Taggart Stadium tomorrow night at eight o'clock.

The winner, Aliquippa or New Castle, will not only qualify to participate in the Pitt Stadium playoff game November 26, but will also be a favorite to cop the crown.

Tickets Are All Gone

If ticket sales are an accurate measure of interest in the schoolboy fracas, the scheduled Friday night contest will surpass any other high school game played here.

General admission and standing room tickets are all that remain for sale at the Stadium tomorrow night.

Indians Seek Revenge

The Beaver Valley Indians invaded New Castle bent on avenging two straight losses by large scores and gaining some revenge for the most decisive defeat handed their school in the 1942 playoff game. As Coach Phil Bridenbaugh said Wednesday, "A team that wins that many ball games against those teams has got to be good." The only bad mark on the visitor's record is a 7-to-6 loss to Windber. The latter scored late in the last period to nose out the Quips. Successive wins over Rochester, Ambridge, Ellwood and Beaver Falls indicate that Aliquippa has "it" in the tough going. At least it has so far.

Plan Defense

The Red Hurricanes final workout with pads yesterday consisted of a drill on fundamentals, running a few plays, then a long defensive session against Aliquippa maneuvers. Since there is no Don Stala, Rich Billingslea, or Ralph Greco on the junior varsity, the execution of Aliquippa plays left a lot to be desired.

However, the varsity defenders became acquainted with what to expect, and it was easily seen by

Reserved Seats Are All Sold Out

New Castle High Putting 1,000 General Admission Seats On Sale Friday

New Castle High had a complete sellout of reserved seats for the New Castle-Aliquippa game Wednesday in just three hours time. At 9 o'clock 3,000 seats went on sale and by noon the "All Sold Out" sign was hung up.

There is a tremendous amount of interest being shown in the game this week, with a playoff bid hanging on the outcome.

J. H. Earl McKenzie, business manager of New Castle High, said today: "We will put 1,000 general admission tickets on sale at 7 o'clock." It will be first come first served, after the 1,000 tickets are gone standing room will be sold, McKenzie stated.

A crowd of over 15,000 is looked for Friday, which will break all modern day high school records here.

Ellwood Ends Season Friday

Meet Ambridge High School Friday Night At Lincoln High Field

Ellwood City high school ends its 1949 football season Friday night when it entertains the Ambridge "Bridgers" in a WPIAL class AA match.

The fact that both teams have been eliminated from the WPIAL title chase detracts not a bit from the game. Both teams have played great ball and are out to end the season on a bright note.

Ambridge defeated Rochester 13 to 6, a team that beat the Wolverines 13-0. Both teams lost to Aliquippa. Ellwood by a 13-0 score and Ambridge by a 14-0 score.

The Wolverines have a perfect home record to protect Friday night. So far this season they have defeated Erie, Tionesta, South Hills, Vandergrift and Bradford on friendly Lincoln field. Their three setbacks all came on foreign territory.

THIEL AT ALLEGHENY
GREENVILLE, Pa., Nov. 3.—The Tomcats journey to Meadville to battle the "Gators" of Allegheny college Saturday afternoon. Boasting a 500 mark, the Blue and Gold will be out to put the record in the black. Saturday afternoon, October 29, found the Thiel gridders at Grove City coming out on the short end of a 6-0 score.

Lakers Defeat Warriors 81-69

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—(INS)—Beak-nosed Jim Pollard flipped in 30 points and lanky George Mikan added another 18 to spark the Minneapolis Lakers to an 81-69 victory over the Philadelphia Warriors last night.

It was the opening game of the 1949 National Basketball Association season in Philadelphia and was witnessed at the Arena by a crowd of nearly 5,000.

SCOUT FOR MACKS TAKEN BY DEATH
HARRISBURG, Nov. 3.—(INS)—Thomas A. Crowley, of Steelton, a scout for the Philadelphia Athletics, died today at Harrisburg Hospital. He was 55.

Ailing for six months, Crowley succumbed to heart and stomach ailments, according to Dr. William Dailey, of Steelton.

Japanese and American swimmers may resume dual competition in 1950.

Leading Diamond Fans To Attend County Banquet

Lawrence county's leading baseball fans and sport celebrities will attend the County League baseball banquet Saturday night at the Bessemer Presbyterian church.

The list of dignitaries that will join with the officers and players of the league in a big dinner and pay tribute to a good season and the championship Bessemer team include Sheriff Frank Coen, League Commissioner Joseph McFate, County Commissioners Joseph Gilmore, Joseph Travers and Harvey Bush, Mayor John Haven, Sportswriters Ed Fitz and "Bugs" Walters, City League President Len Gilbert, North County League President Howard Rodgers and Paul Minner, member of the Brooklyn Dodgers pitching staff, who will be firing from the Chicago Cub mound next summer.

Plan Fine Program

Dinner will be served at 6:30 at a program of approximately two hours duration will follow.

Bernie Hanlon, league treasurer, is the toastmaster for the evening. The main speaker is an American League umpire, Bill McKinley.

All county fans of the diamond sport are welcome to attend the banquet and join in a late fall discussion of baseball, past, present and future. Those planning to attend should notify President Alec Samuel or Secretary Jim Martin.

Louis Scoffs At Comeback

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—(INS)—Retired heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis is scoffing at reports that his forthcoming series of "no decision" bouts is a prelude to a bid to fight champion Ezzard Charles.

"Ten of these 10-round, no decision bouts and that's all," the Brown Bomber told sports writers who gathered at a luncheon to quiz him about his future plans.

Will Meet Shklar
The 35-year-old retired boxing champion, now weighing well over 220, dropped in mainly to ballyhoo his ov. 14 Boston Garden bout with Johnny Shklar, the first of his ten bouts.

When asked what he would do if his fans drafted him for a title bout with Charles at the expiration of his forthcoming tour, Louis quipped:

"If there's a draft, I'll close the door."

Buffalo Bisons Increase Lead

(By International News Service)

The Buffalo Bisons lengthened their first place lead in the eastern division of the American Hockey League to a game and a half today while the western sector's front running Cleveland Barons held on to their top spot.

The Bisons jolted the runnerup Providence Reds, 6-3, last night to stretch their first place margin to three points over the Rhode Islanders.

The Barons clicked off their eighth victory in 10 games by edging the Pittsburgh Hornets, 4-3 last night to keep them ahead of Indianapolis.

Al Rollins, probably professional hockey's tallest goalie at 6 feet 2 inches, made his first American League start in front of the Cleveland net.

The Indianapolis Caps ended their two-game losing streak with a 3-1 win over the Cincinnati Mohawks and the Hershey Bears and Springfield Indians fought to a standoff 4-4 score.

New Haven travels to Indianapolis in the only scheduled American League contest tonight.

Minnesota Fans After Bierman

'MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 3.—(INS)—Blistering criticism struck the ears of Minnesota Coach Bernie Bierman today in the wake of the Gophers football team's two successive losses.

The remarks following Minnesota's defeats by Michigan and Purdue were from sports writers, sportscasters and fans. The former marine colonel was berated for his "stone age football tactics" and for acting like a Prussian drill master.

Twelve Seniors Play Final Game For Union High

Scotland Laners Wind Up 1949 Season At Brookfield Saturday Night

Twelve members of Union high school's 1949 football squad will play their last high school football game Saturday night when the Scotland Laners meet Brookfield at Brookfield.

Players to graduate in June of 1950 are Lynn Fowler, Glen Hedrick, Frank Presnar, John Young, Carl Tomlinson, Anthony Phillips, Joe Hritz, Jim Callahan, Len McClanahan, Joe Grande, Don Passeretti and Kenny Kendra.

Kendra has already participated in his last game, having been forced out of action several weeks ago due to injuries. He and Ronnie May, starting ends at the beginning of the season, will both be out of uniform for this game.

Same Lineup
Probably the same lineup that started against Mercer last week will take the field against Brookfield Saturday.

The team was given a vacation Tuesday as the JV's played a practice game. Many of the boys were still off Wednesday due to the hunting season and coaches Schantz and Roussos are counting on tough sessions Thursday and Friday to make up for lost time.

Brookfield high is undefeated in the 1949 season and boasts a varied attack behind a powerful line. Brut Lunich at left half does much of the running and passing, with quarterback Billy Hill also doing some punting and line bucking.

They play an open game that includes laterals on short passes and plenty of passes.

Franklin Plays At Sharon Today

Ben Franklin junior high football team takes to the road today to compete against the little Tigers of Sharon in an afternoon contest starting at 3:30.

Coach George Massie's crew would like to have another shot at George Washington, the new city champion, that hung a 6 to 0 defeat on the Patriots. Perhaps Franklin will take their spite out on Sharon.

The Patriots' record to date is two wins, one tie and one loss. A win today would end the season on a successful note and partially make up for the Washington setback.

FOOTBALL FORECAST

Rifle Club Will Meet On Friday

The New Castle Rifle club will have a practice shoot at the Army range at 7:30 o'clock Friday night. It was announced today by Secretary Paul Carrigan. All members are urged to try and attend.

The Interstate Rifle league will start the season Monday, November 7, with New Castle slated for a match at Beaver Valley.

Table Tennis Act To Be Presented

The YMCA of Westminster is sponsoring the "world's greatest table tennis act" featuring world champ Lou Pagliaro and famous Hamilton Canning in an exhibition. Matches, trick shots and a seated Pagliaro challenging a spectator are features of the show. The act will take place at the college gym at 8 p. m. Friday, Nov. 4.

MR. ROWLAND, THE RECORDS CANNOT BE IMPEACHED

For the last week, Mr. Rowland, you and several of your henchmen have, by bold statements that we have been distorting the truth, attempted to answer the accusations made for a period of five weeks in the public newspaper against your machine candidates. The charges made against your squander mania politicians and against your "CHARLIE MCCARTHY" for District Attorney are grave ones. The squandering of public money is a grave charge. The taxpayers demand an answer from your machine, dominated by you. You cannot by innuendoes and false statements refuse to answer.

The public records, from which the grave charges have been made, are unimpeachable. Most all of these records are prepared and kept by public officers, some of whom are henchmen in this ruthless machine.

Mr. Rowland, we again call your attention to the public records from which the accusations against your machine candidates were taken:

1. The Pension grab by the present members of City Council was taken from the city ordinances and is Council Bill No. 46.
2. The County Pension Fund was taken from County Minute Book 33. This is the fund which Mr. Rowland's "CHARLIE MCCARTHY" will raid if elected District Attorney.
3. The record of your dominated candidate for District Attorney as a trial lawyer was taken from the records in the Clerk of Quarter Session's office.
4. The airport lease, showing your City Hall violated its duty to realize the greatest revenue possible from city owned property was taken from the testimony of Mr. Alexander who testified under oath in the Lawrence County Courts at No. 1 December Term, 1947.
5. The increased squandering of taxpayers money in 1949 over 1948 of $216,000 was taken from the city budget.
6. Increasing the public debt of the taxpayers $750,000 in two years was taken from the records of the City Controller.
7. Inducing a politician who was making $2376 a year to come and join your machine by putting him on the city payroll at a salary of $4600 was taken from city records.
8. Spending of $25,000 additional to collect the wage and income tax, by creating a new department and new jobs, to strengthen your machine when the collection could have been done by existing departments at a very little increase in costs, was taken from the city's 1949 budget.
9. The 63% increase in county taxes in two years was taken from the records at the Court House. This fact can be easily checked, taxpayers. Check your own tax receipts.
10. The 1% wage and income tax is just common knowledge—everyone pays.

These are the facts from the public records which we have brought to light and presented to you. What is still hidden in darkness is known only to the machine politicians and they won't tell.

WE STILL SAY, FOR THE GOOD OF LAWRENCE COUNTY, THIS ONE-MAN DOMINATED MACHINE MUST BE DEFEATED.

HUNTERS with dogs have fared better than those seeking game without dog, according to Game Protector Cal Hooper who substantiates the statement of Sheriff Frank Coen that, most game has been found in thick cover. Hooper reports several arrests were made the opening day for game law violations. Sheriff Coen reported he heard numerous shots after five p. m. November 1. . . A Detroit manager of a boxer, may face a charge of violating Michigan law, inasmuch as he waged a bet on his fighter who engaged in a recent Detroit fight. . . Elliott Steelers and Ambridge bowl at Castle alleys, Friday evening. The Steelers lead the Tri-County Women's circuit. Miss Rose Mooney captains the leaders. Miss Mooney is a niece of the late Tony Ross, who boxed all the leading heavyweights, including Jack Johnson. . . Sammy Fitzgerald, 16, of Fairmont avenue, had good luck the opening day of the hunting season. He shot three rabbits and a ringneck. . . No hunting signs have been posted by Owen Fox in city-operated parks. . . Laid up with a broken leg in Jameson Memorial hospital, Russell Stoughton, Slippery Rock Township, will miss his usual hunting this season. . . Hunters are prohibited from shooting across a highway.

Jared O. Davies, Old Plank road, a U. E. & F. employee, boxed Joe Guido, Banty Sharp and others at Steubenville, in his younger days. Jared has a pet squirrel which he is guarding closely since the advent of the squirrel season. Mention of Banty Sharp recalls that, Patsy Murphy, former local lightweight, outpointed Banty at Ambridge, shortly after Sharp fought Benny Leonard in a New York state ring. . . There is plenty of speculation as to the outcome of the Ne-Ca-Hi vs Aliquippa game, Friday night. . . Herman Steinbrink, president of the Lawrence County Sportsman's association, who was hospitalized for dermatitis, has been removed to his residence. He is fire chief. . . Mayor John Haven and Joe Rick, local horseman, each bagged two ringnecks Tuesday. . . The $12,000 yearling filly, Open Heart, is in the hands of Trainer Gene Pownall who is already putting her through her preliminary paces in Orlando, Fla. She is a full sister to the speedy three-year-old pacer, Vesta's First, and was bought at auction last month by the Blue Heather farm, LaCrosse, Wis. . . Jack Potter, former first baseman for the North Hill Red Sox, is selling fire engines and fire-hose. . . Do you know the name and address of the county's eldest hunter to have sought game, this season? If so, forward the info' to Here & There.

U.P.'s Will Have Evangelism School November 13 To 18

Dr. G. Black, Evangelism Teacher,
Will Direct School At
Third U.P. Church

United Presbyterian churches of New Castle and surrounding territory are looking forward to the school of visitation evangelism which is to be conducted at Third U. P. church, November 13 through 18.

Rev. Guy Black, D.D., one of the greatest living teachers on evangelism, will be in New Castle.

to direct the school. Dr. Black organized and directed the Methodist evangelistic program that added 1,500,000 communicants to that church. Dr. Black has worked with many different church groups and has always produced splendid results.

The school is being sponsored by the First Synod of the west of the United Presbyterian church. Over 50 churches in this area will participate, representing 23,000 communicants. Instruction will be given during the morning sessions. Pastors and leaders then return to their respective congregations and will carry out a program of visitation each evening the school is in session.

Rev. Robert P. MacDonald, pastor of the New Wilmington U.P. church is actively engaged in promoting the school while Dr. J.

Paul Graham of the host church is local chairman. Locally, the four United Presbyterian churches and the First Presbyterian church under the leadership of Dr. Robert F. Galbreath will join heartily in the work of visitation.

Rev. J. Calvin Rose, pastor of Second church is speaking three evenings this week in Mercer, in a series of preparatory meetings for the work to be done in that city.

USE ADJUSTED PLOW

Where winter erosion is not a problem, some farmers like to do part of their plowing in the fall. Howard Bingham, extension agricultural engineer of the Pennsylvania State College, reminds that only a properly adjusted plow can do a good job. Ask your county agent for Extension Circular 259, Plow Adjustment.

Catholic Veterans Breakfast Sunday

Installation Of Officers To Be Held After, Jointly With Catholic Auxiliary

Plans have been completed by the New Castle Catholic War Veterans Post 741 for their communion breakfast, which is scheduled to be held Sunday, November 6, in St. Joseph's church.

The event is to be a joint affair with the Catholic Auxiliaries. Holy communion will be received at the 9 o'clock mass, Rev. Fr. C. H. Becker to be celebrant.

At 8:45 a. m., the group will assemble in the church hall. Immediately after mass, breakfast will be served in the Ecclesian club. Installation of officers will also take place, with Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso as the installing officer.

A large crowd will attend, and Commander Edward DeCarbo has stated that all arrangements have now been made. President of the auxiliary is Miss Angeline Venditto.

GROW GOOD PASTURES

Plenty of high-quality pasture throughout the season is one of the most important factors in the success of any livestock enterprise. The Pennsylvania State College Agricultural extension service has just published a new circular on starting new pastures and improving old ones. Get a copy from your county agent.
